About us

Introlink is one of the premium Modular Kitchen and Storage Unit manufacturing brands in Bengal. The brand was formed by Mr. Tanmay Saha who belonged from a remote village in Nadia District called Karimpur. Worried by the lack of job opportunities, Mr Saha ventured into business after completion of his education and was intrigued by the intricacies of Modular Kitchen business. Introlink was formed with an aim to explore the immense potential of the segment by providing innovative kitchen and living room solution custom made to the requirement of the discerning customers at a cost effective price. A well planned, organized and easy to operate kitchen spreads positive energy and enhances overall feel of the place.

His vision is to produce and provide quality products laced with latest technology. Success derives from the satisfaction of the customers post usage of our products. The brand over the last decade has ensured more smiles and satisfaction amongst our valuable customers.

Introlink modular kitchens and storage wardrobes was coined after working in the industry for 6years. During this tenure, we have discovered that offerings can be improved substantially keeping cost effectiveness in consideration.

The set up of the manufacturing unit was made 2021 has given us a strong foothold in the market.

We have collaborated with one of the leading manufacturers of hardware and accessories in a bid to improve product experience. Our support team comprises of top class technicians who ensures seamless installation and prompt after sales service.

During the last five years, we have expanded from the realms of Bengal to Jharkhand and in the next few years we wish to expand in most parts of the nation. We may not cover the whole 100% customer base but we aspire to 100% customer satisfaction.

Vision

We aim to provide products that display outstanding quality. Craftsmanship, technique and class. We intend to maintain a staller level of customer service and exhibit high standard of corporate leadership in every action. We have succeeded in market and we aim to continue doing so.

Mission

Innovation and providing customer satisfaction being the central proposition, our mission is to complete your dream home with path breaking technology and functionality with Introlink Modular Kitchen, home decor solutions along with commercial projects. Our company endeavours to embark in the journey of achieving excellence in the field of good living.
